Both Flesh and Not, by David Foster Wallace. Little Brown, 2012. $26.99, 336 pages. Some folks' deaths loom large. These passings linger over everybody else's lives the way an ex-partners' old shirt remains in a lump in the corner of your closet. You can't get rid of the shirt. You can't wash the shirt because washing it would be destroying the part of the shirt that you loved the most, which is whatever remained of the person who left it behind.
