That being said, I actually did enjoy Tiger Shrimp Tango for the crazy Florida crime romp that it is. Since I haven't read the previous Serge Storms books, I'm not sure if this is an element of all of them, but the timeline in Tiger Shrimp Tango jumps backward and forward, which can be confusing at times.

Tiger Shrimp Tango (Serge Storms, #17)

Of all the Serge Storms books, I think 'Tiger Shrimp Tango' may be the one most similar to the early Hiaasen books - and that definitely is a compliment and a recommendation to read this book. This is a great story that is hard to put down.
